Applicant pro se is to be commended for filing an appeal brief in near-perfect form.

There are two minor mistakes that must be corrected. There have been numerous examples of applications being returned to the Examiner's by the Board of Appeals for seemingly minor mistakes such as these.

(1) Applicant has included arguments under the heading Grounds of rejection to be reviewed on appeal. Under this heading, only the first sentence of this section should be included, with the remaining portions thereof included under the arguments heading.

(2) Even though Applicant may not have any "related proceedings", an appendix must be set up with this heading followed by "none", if this is the case.

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Blair M. Johnson whose telephone number is (571) 272-6830. The examiner can normally be reached on Mon.-Fri., 6:30-3:00.
